IN MEMORIAM

Elsa Knight Thompson

Elsa Knight Thompson, whose unique radio personality and voice reached millions of people around the world, gave many years of her life to KPFA and the other Pacifica stations. Elsa died on the early morning of February 12, 1983, and it has fallen to me to attempt to summarize her life and work in the pages of the Folio.

Raised in Seattle, amidst the upsurge of social movement represented by the intense labor struggles of the IWW, an upsurge that gave birth to many outstanding individuals, such as John Reed and Louise Bryant of Reds fame, Elsa, whose father was a journalist, grew up in a household percolating with ideas and controversy. She was steeled in the depression, working to help support the family instead of pursuing her higher education. She began as a print journalist, writing articles for the New Statesman and Nation, and developed a keen interest in international politics. Her second marriage, to a British professor and diplomat, took her to England and the continent. She was in Rumania just before World War II, where she saw rabid anti-Semitism first-hand and risked her life in personal defense of Jewish friends to whom she was teaching English. She clearly foresaw the conflict to come, returned to visit her family in the United States, and then, as war broke out, returned on a dangerous voyage to Britain, armed with a strong sense of mission, that she would do all she could to defeat fascism. She headed a program for the evacuation of British children to the United States as the Nazi blitz rained down.

Report to the Listener

Jim Berland,
General Manager.

We made it through the winter. Thanks to all of you who joined us during January, and welcome. Thanks too for those extra donations and new subscribers on The Nation day. More than $10,000 pledged that day. All of this support is critical for KPFK's viability.

We are planning a series of fund raising activities during the next six months to help make up for increased costs, and to continue to retire our debt. Among these events, not yet finalized, a Rhythm and Blues Festival, a Latin Festival and the currently planned (see the back page of this issue) Gospel Festival. We are also cooperating with the Alliance for Survival in a day of volunteer mobilization—see pages 6-7 for details. These cooperative efforts with The Nation and the Alliance may presage a greater working relationship with other organizations in maintaining our mutual financial viability.

In addition to these events we will be undertaking a major effort to reach people by telephone to assure that as many of you as possible continue your subscriptions. We hope that Friends of KPFK will provide significant support for this effort, and we urge you to get involved in your local Friends chapter, or as a volunteer at KPFK. We are going to need a lot of help during the Fund Drive this month, so please call up and talk with Akiyene Umoja to schedule your participation.

Fund Drive

KPFK was founded for Peace and Peace is the theme for this important month of programming and the kick-off of our Spring Fund Drive. April 4 through 18, the goal is $100,000. Our new transmitter will be completed if there are no serious storms between the middle of March and April 1, and the Fund Drive should be a powerful kick-off for the increased outreach. As most of you know, the saga of the transmitter has been long and painful, and we will all celebrate when it is completed. We hope many of you who already support the station will join us in the special Transmitter completion celebration Match Fund. Your dollars will help pay off the loan we have taken to complete the construction of the project.

Programming this month is exciting and important. Vietnam Week (from April 11-15) includes the material from the in-depth look back at the war (conference held at the University of Southern California), and programs from Pacifica's archives which distinguished our coverage of the war and its opposition movements. At a time when U.S. involvement in Central America is increasing, this look back is as relevant as ever.

During the first week of the drive the station's programmers will explore the meaning of Pacifica's commitment to peace—in music, culture, news and public affairs. Look at the schedule and invite your friends in to listen. The section on Vietnam Week in this Folio can be used as a wall poster to help promote the programming; feel free to copy it and hang it up where people can see.

Staff Organization

KPFK's staff and volunteers are engaged in an effort to improve internal functioning. We are looking at station procedures, decision making, methods of consultation, methods of goal setting and evaluation, worker-management relations and policy making. Many of these questions will be reflected upon as the KPFK Workers' Union and Pacifica negotiate a new contract. We have been working under the same agreement for more than five years, and we are due for a fresh look. While this is proceeding, we will be making no significant changes in staff and we will not proceed to hire a new Program Director. Programming decisions will be made by the staff assigned to administer each of the station's program areas: Kwaku Lynn and Andrea 'Enthal for Music, Miya Iwataki for Cultural Affairs, Marc Cooper for News and Public Affairs and Sherry Novick for Operations. This will leave me free to devote my energy to raising money and saving money in administration. It will also mean the departure of Jane Gordon as program secretary. I would like to thank her for stepping in during recent interim period.

Audience Size

I am never sure what to make of ratings, but I am pleased that our audience has reportedly increased during the fall. We have a constant challenge to reach more people with the substance that counts. All of us who care about the mission of Pacifica need to care that we do the job well enough to enthrall a wide range of people.

Program Awards

KPFK's News Department makes it three years in a row with an award from the Associated Press California Television-Radio Association. The award for Best Spot News Coverage goes to Marc Cooper and Pacifica's Tim Frasca for coverage of the El Salvador elections. Congratulations to them and to you the listener-sponsors who made it possible.

This April 15 marks 34 years of broadcasting for Pacifica Radio. One of the key figures in the effort was Elsa Knight Thompson. As you read about her in this Folio ("At the Mike") reflect on the legacy which we have been left by those who built Pacifica, and the necessity for our nurturing this wonderful resource.

- Volunteer a Day
- Meet Human Needs
- Join the Alliance

Imagine a walkathon where the walkers don't walk. They volunteer in hospitals, soup kitchens, clinics, etc.

You've just imagined "VOLUNTEER L.A. DAY!"

Demonstrate your commitment to meeting human needs while you raise needed money for KPFK and Alliance for Survival

GET SPONSORED

1. Begin early. Get many sponsors. Start with a large pledge ($5 per hour is good).
2. Ask everyone you know: friends, coworkers, classmates, businesses, etc.
3. Wear your "No Nukes" button or T-shirt. When people ask you about it, tell them about the Alliance and ask them if they will sponsor you.
4. Set a goal for total pledges ($100 is a good start).

Closing rally back at the LACC Student Center

Register from 9-11 a.m. on Saturday, April 23 at the Los Angeles City College Student Center on Vermont Avenue just north of the Hollywood Freeway.

At that time pick your volunteer job for the day. Then join many friends and activists at your assignment for the day, volunteering from 11-4.

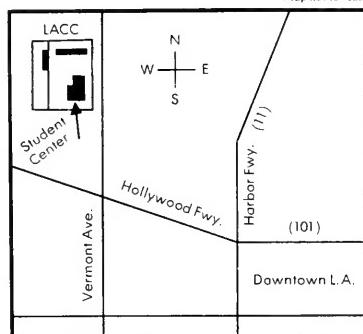

Come back to the LACC Student Center for a closing rally with music and speakers.

Please bring transportation if possible to aid in carpooling for those who need rides to their volunteer sites.

PRIZES

1. All volunteers will receive a certificate of completion.
2. All volunteers with $30 or more in pre-paid pledges receive a special "Volunteer L.A. Day" poster.
3. All volunteers with $60 or more in pledges receive a special "Volunteer L.A. Day" T-shirt.
4. Special prizes will be awarded to top pledge gatherers.

Pacifica News

Pacifica Radio News in Washington will now be broadcasting a daily news report coast-to-coast by satellite. The daily half-hour report will be heard on KPFK Monday through Friday at 3 p.m. On this report you will hear the familiar voices of KPFK reporters as well as Pacifica correspondents stationed in different parts of the country and world. And now when you support KPFK you have the satisfaction of knowing that you are helping to bring Pacifica Satellite News to a growing number of non-commercial radio stations throughout the U.S. So join us every weekday at 3 p.m. to hear the new Pacifica Radio News Afternoon Report—news in the inimitable Pacifica style.

Volunteer Day

"What does Volunteer L.A. Day have to do with Reagan budget cuts? Plenty!" So says the Southern California Alliance for Survival in announcing their co sponsorship with Radio Station KPFK for the special 1983 event at the Student Center, L.A. City College, on Saturday, April 23.

From the 9 a.m. registration until the 4:30 p.m. closing rally, volunteers will demonstrate their commitment to meeting human needs through concrete deeds and at the same time raise desperately needed funds for the struggle of the Alliance for Survival's fight against nuclear war, and KPFK's urgent need to survive by staying on the air. (One third of all funds raised will go directly to KPFK for operating costs.)

Here's how it works: Get sponsors to pay you, not just for walking, but for using that energy to work in non-profit organizations such as hospitals, soup kitchens, clinics, etc. When you register at L.A.C.C. that Saturday between 9 and 11 a.m. you pick your job for the day. Get businesses and individuals to sponsor you at $5 an hour, for example, for the hours from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m.; that's 25 bucks; AND—if you get ten sponsors, you've raised $250.00 for S.C.A.S. and KPFK. Better still, get 100,000 sponsors and we'll all have a nice piece of change.

Stay tuned to KPFK for more information and special broadcasts on Volunteer L.A. Day. Get involved. Better than a walk-a-thon—meet a human need!

Catch 222 Special

Live from Studio Z: the producers of Catch 222 bring you a town hall meeting on the April 12 Board of Education elections. All of the candidates participating in the four districts have been invited to attend this gathering. They will be allowed some time to present their position(s) and then they will be questioned by moderators and our live in-studio audience. You, of course, are invited to attend this meeting for free. Our address is 3729 Cahuenga Blvd. West, North Hollywood, near the corner of Lankershim Blvd. No matter what side of the fence you are on, come on down and get involved in your school system: Tuesday, April 12, 7-9 p.m.

Contest

Announcing a meaningful song contest—"The Bill Wolff Songs of Social Significance Contest" sponsored by the William Wolff Folk Song Foundation and administered by KPFK (coordinated by Mario Casetta). Bill Wolff was a mainstay of People's Songs, Inc. back in the golden years of songs for political action immediately following World War II. His activities in composing songs of labor and the American people go back many years before that. Along with Ray Glazer he wrote "Put it on the Ground," for the Maritime strike immediately after the war. If he wrote nothing else but this, his place in history would be assured.

The Bill Wolff Foundation is putting up a first prize of $250 and $150 for the runner-up for the best song that exemplifies the spirit of Bill Wolff and People's Songs type material. This does not mean you have to write a singing editorial. Songs can be simple, say a few words and express a great deal (witness "Where Have All the Flowers Gone"?").

This contest will end by the 1st of August. Winners will be announced at a special Labor Day program, Monday September 5th—broadcast live from Studio Z at KPFK—with audience participation.

You may submit material on cassette, if you wish, but please provide a clean lead-sheet with your submission. There is no entrance fee. Also, material cannot be returned, so make sure you have copies of everything you submit. Send entries by the end of July to: Bill Wolff Song Contest, Radio KPFK, Box 8639, Universal City, Ca. 91608—Attention Mario. Be certain your name and address is legible. Incidentally, any donations to the Bill Wolff Foundation may also be sent to Mario at the same address. Best of luck to you all!

Gospel Festival

KPFK is preparing for another mind-bending event, produced by the Community Events Department, Mario Casetta, Director, in collaboration with our own Prince Dixon (of Gospel Caravan fame), "Papa" Beasley and Paul Burroughs. This will be our Fourth Annual All-Nations Gospel Festival, again at the historic Embassy Auditorium, 843 So. Grand Avenue, on Friday the 6th of April, from 7:30 to 11:30 p.m.

This year's grand feature is the presentation of the multi-racial UCLA Gospel Choir under the direction of Professor Jacqueline Dje Dje from the Ethnic Music Department. This will be their first appearance for KPFK and it is eagerly awaited.

And again, Prince Dixon will steer us through an exciting evening of the Gospel scene in Southern California with some of the greatest groups anywhere: Among the many fine singers and musicians participating will be the Paul Burroughs Gospel Choir, the Sweet Singing Cavaliers, the Heavenly Echoes and the Long Beach Southernaires. And, of course, the one and only Prince Dixon.

These are sold-out community events and we urge you to get your tickets in advance. Not only will you not be disappointed this year, but you will save $1.50 on each advance-sale ticket! ($7.50 at the box office). Send $6.00 check or money order per seat to: "Gospel Festival," Radio KPFK, P.O. Box 8639, Universal City, Ca. 91608, and PLEASE enclose a self-addressed stamped envelope.

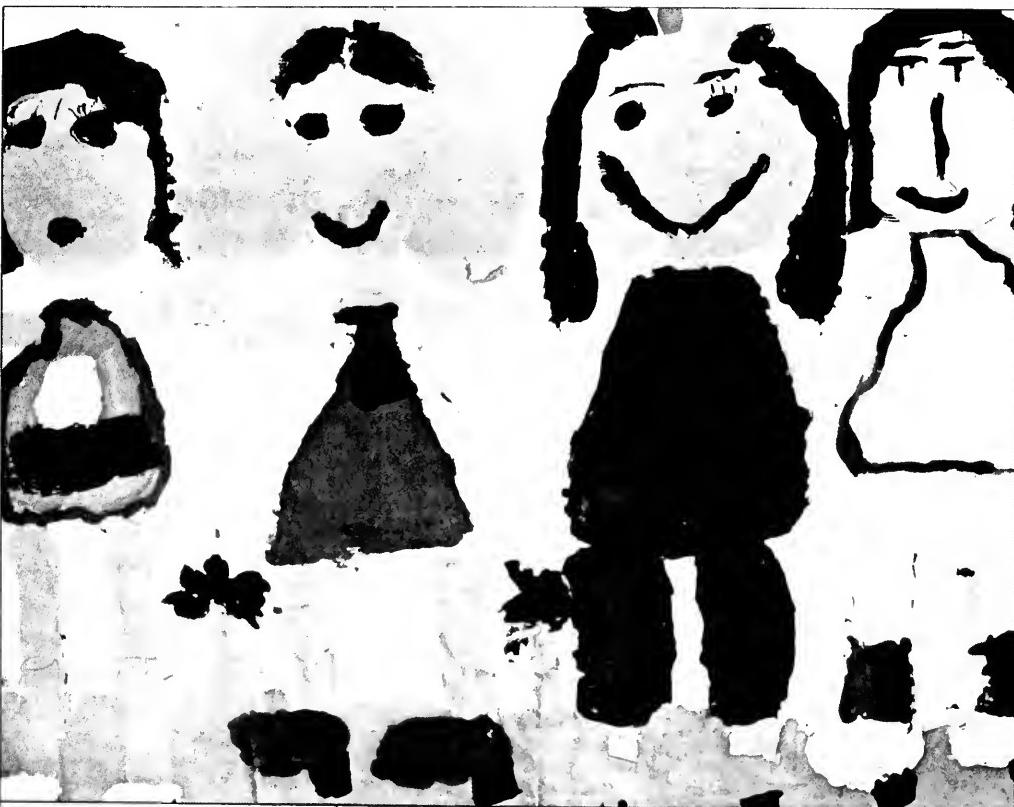

Radio Drama

Jaimie Jaimes' theatrical career extends over more than two decades—and includes numerous (more than one hundred) stage, television and radio productions. Founder of a School of Dramatic Art in his native Argentina, Mr. Jaimes has also produced and directed extensively in both France and Spain. He moved to Los Angeles in 1978 where he founded the bilingual theater group, El Teatro de la Unidad, in association with the Los Angeles Actor's Theater and radio station KPFK, with a California Arts Council Artist-in-Residence program. El Teatro de la Unidad produces fine dramas written in Spanish, produced in Spanish—and then produces the same dramas in English while still retaining the Latin perspective.

A grant from the California Council for the Humanities to KPFK funds the panel discussions to follow each broadcast, entitled "Creating a Critical Context for Radio Drama" featuring a round-table discussion among leading scholars in the humanities in the area of Spanish literature, experts on theater, literature and criticism, and listeners are encouraged to call in with their comments and questions and to participate on the air in the discussion. The discussion will be conducted in the same language as the play was presented and are produced by Jeannie Pool.

A grant from the National Public Radio Satellite Programming Development Fund has paid some of the production expenses for these radio dramas and enables KPFK to distribute these productions via satellite to all public radio stations who have a satellite down-link, free-of-charge, for broadcast throughout the United States later this year.

12:00 12 O'Clock Rock. Post-punk, punk, scratch, electronics, dub, reggae, and whatever else is making waves in underground rock, is the focus of this six-hour magazine format program produced by Andrea 'Enthal. For the uninitiated, scratch is an experimental style that originated in New York City discos. There, DJ's used slip cuing (and similar physical manipulations) at the turntable, to modify the sounds coming from a record. Contemporary rock musicians are now incorporating scratch in the recording, in place of the now-clichéd instrumental solo. See April 3 listing for more details about this program.

Then a short talk on Gandhi by Martin Luther King and a short talk by Gandhi himself in 1946.

ACTIVIST FILE

One thing KPFK has always needed is a centralized, up-to date file of activists and their organizations. Staff and volunteer programmers have come and gone—and so has access to their contacts, address books, and rolladexes. Work on such a file has begun. This form has been developed so you'll know what information we'd like to have. If you or your organization want our programmers to know about you, please fill it out and send it to KPFK c/o Activist File. Thanks!

Jimi Hendrix Special: Monday, April 11 through Thursday, April 15 at 7:00 each evening.

KPFK presents "Vietnam Reconsidered: The War and the Military and the War and the Vets"—at 12 noon on Thursday, April 14. Be sure to listen as a stream of veterans recount their experiences and tragedies in this explosive segment . . .

tinue our special programming on the USC Vietnam Reconsidered Conference, we look today at current U.S. relations with Vietnam. A number of historians and vets make an impassioned argument for the U.S. to restore relations with Hanoi and to make good on its promise to provide war reparations. We'll also hear from Vietnam's representative to the United Nations, who was prevented by the State Department from attending the USC Conference and had to address it by satellite link. Rounding out today's programming will be several presentations attempting to sum up the Lessons from the War.

6:00 The Evening News.

7:00 Jimi Hendrix, Special: Part Three of our 4-part series this week on the life and music of the ultimate rock guitarist. Featuring never-before broadcast, unreleased music, as well as interviews. Produced by Bari Scott, Craig Street, Don West and David Henderson of Slight Return Productions.

9:30 The Vietnam Rag and Other Songs of Protest. Tom Nixon hosts this special on music written to protest the Vietnam War. Fundraising is included.

12:00 Vietnam Reconsidered: The War and the Military and the War and the Vets. Today's programming on the USC Vietnam Reconsidered Conference is perhaps the most explosive in our series. Top Pentagon brass clash with regular foot soldiers over re-reading what the war was about. While generals claim they were engaged in a noble cause, draftees say they were "used as human guinea pigs." The lingering rancor and bitterness left over from the war flash back to life as a stream of veterans recount their experiences and tragedies. Today's broadcast will also include excerpts from Pacifica's 1971 Winter Soldier Investigations.

6:00 The Evening News.

7:00 Jimi Hendrix, Special: The conclusion of our 4-part series on the life and music of the ultimate rock guitarist. Including interviews, as well as some never-before broadcast music.

12:00 Vietnam Reconsidered: The War, Protest Resistance and Cultural Revolution. David Dellinger, Daniel Ellsberg, Todd Gitlin and others are central to today's programming on the effects of the Vietnam War on U.S. culture and the growth of the anti-war movement. The old debates of the 1960's come to life with a surprising urgency. Were the protesters responsible for ending the war? Or did President Nixon really prefer to watch the Redskins' games as he claimed at the time? Don't miss this final dynamite day of programming on the USC Vietnam Reconsidered Conference.

6:00 The Evening News.

7:00 XA: A Vietnam Primer.

The 2000-year struggle of the Vietnamese people to be free on their own land, movingly dramatized by the Provincial Theatre, and adapted by them for KPFK, for this original radio presentation first aired in 1973. The forceful production, all based on documented information, is in three parts: (1) The history and culture of Vietnam, describing the people and their encounters with various invading forces (Chinese, Japanese, etc.) ending with the return of the French after WWII. Includes excerpts from French and Vietnamese historical documents, letters, etc. (29')

(2) U.S. involvement in France's war; changes and progress in the north and the south; activities of the Viet Minh and the National Liberation Front. (26')

(3) Following the course of the war during the Pacification Program, the Tet Offensive, the 1968 elections in the U.S., and Nixon's peace plans. Ends with the ceasefire of January 27, 1973. Produced for KPFK by members and friends of the Provincial Theatre. Fundraising included.

A Note from Charles

My Very Dear Friends:

(The salutation is not hyperbole. You are very dear and you are my friends, and the evidence is at my hand.)

When I left KPFK, I expected to receive perhaps 25 or 30 cards and letters. I have received several times that number, and am very grateful. I resort to this means of response, because I can afford neither the time nor energy to answer each message individually.

Retirement from a schedule involving a regular deadline is, and has been, much more traumatic than I had thought it would be. It was far from being restful; it was like a drastic and sudden divorce. Sleep and appetite fled the scene; I was somehow distraught. Things have now evened out to some degree.

Kate has insisted in the strongest terms that I decamp the familiar scene with or without her, and so, in the very near future, we plan a trip to Death Valley to watch and hear the early growth of desert blossoms. And, of course, to gain a new perspective on a new style of existence.

My vocabulary is not necessarily limited, but I have difficulty finding the adequate words with which to express my gratitude for your most kind, heart-warming and soul-stirring letters and cards. I shall, in one way or another, return, but surely not to the grindout routine I have endured for the past decade. That is now behind and beyond me.

Again, please accept my heartfelt thanks and love, and my embarrassed regret that I must resort to this means of expressing these sentiments. Be assured that I shall try to do as I have urged you down the years--to

Persevere,
Charles Morgan

Letters

Dear KPKF:

I would like to nominate Tony Cavin for the George Putnam Award for Bias on a Broadcast Medium for turning the Feb. 28 Evening News into a soapbox for airing his own ill-informed opinions. Frankly, I do not care one way or the other about Mr. Cavin's opinions. However, when they are allowed to creep into a supposedly factual format, I must object. It does no good to have a news operation free of corporate control only to have it become a mill for a different brand of propaganda.

As I do not believe in monarchy, I have very little sympathy for the British Royal Family. Notwithstanding, I would like to point out to Mr. Cavin that Elizabeth is not the only one who "insists on referring to herself as the Queen of England." The duly constituted government of the United Kingdom also "insists" on referring to her by that title.

The bulk of Mr. Cavin's tirade, though, concerned itself with the Falkland Islands dispute in which he parroted the propaganda line of the Fascist Argentine government suggesting that U.S. foreign policy had radically abrogated in this particular case. That this sort of outburst should have occurred at all is bad enough, but the fact that Mr. Cavin's argument is fundamentally flawed makes it even worse, for there are those in every audience who accept uncritically the pronouncements of a trusted opinion-leader.

One method of forensic analysis is to apply an argument to analogous situations and see if it sticks. Let us apply the Argentine analysis to the case of Mexico and California. California is geologically contiguous with Mexico. California was separated from Mexico as the result of military action. California has been a part of the U.S. for less time than the British have been in the Falklands. In addition to these facts, there are large numbers of Mexican nationals and other Spanish-speaking residents of the Falklands, one could, using the Argentine analysis, argue that Mexico has a better claim to California than does Argentina to the Falklands.

Other examples spring to mind. Japan's Western Pacific aggression at the onset of WWII could be justified. Using the Argentine analysis, Hitler was correct in annexing the Sudetenland. (There again, there were at least some German-speaking residents to lend the claim some credence.) It seems, then, that the Argentine analysis is the sort of catch-all argument that can be made to fit almost any situation. It seems to be particularly in favor with Fascist imperialists.

I therefore argue that the Argentine analysis is totally bankrupt, serving only as an excuse for a bloody dictatorship to cover itself in the glory of militant conquest. For the first time in recent memory the U.S. came down squarely (albeit belatedly and somewhat tentatively) on the side of freedom. For this we should praise and not excoriate. (The role of the Reagan Administration in precipitating the conflict is another matter and not germane here.)

I am understandably upset that my subscription money is going toward the support of Fascist imperialist propaganda masquerading as a news lead-in. If Mr. Cavin (or anyone else, for that matter) wishes to air his opinions, I suggest that he do so in a designated commentary format and not as part of an allegedly factual news broadcast. To me at least, this sort of "advocacy journalism" has always implied that the reporter feels that the audience is too stupid to make up their own minds when presented with the unvarnished truth. Personally, I believe that the facts are sufficient. The truth is a sometimes elusive thing. When one considers the bias inherent in the reportage of the commercial media, one can only hope (sometimes forlornly) that KPKF does not become a victim of its own biases, reflecting a mirror-image of the distortions of the commercial press.

Sincerely yours,
Jonathan Sharkey

Mr. Cavin replies:

Overlooking the personal insults there are a number of issues of fact that Mr. Sharkey appears to have either missed or decided to ignore.
1) If the British government duly constituted or not is under the belief that Elizabeth's claim to a position more exalted than that of others who are considered her subjects, that's the business of the British government. One would assume that an advocate of self-determination such as Mr. Sharkey claims to be would agree. The point remains that to those of us who do not believe in a divine right of monarchs the only "objective way" to describe her was as I did.
2) Whatever one's feelings about the disputed Falklands or Malvinas Islands—and Mr. Sharkey has made his quite clear—under the terms of the 1947 Rio Treaty the U.S. was obligated to come to the defense of Argentina. It did not, and Elizabeth expressed her gratitude. I reported this fact. Mr. Sharkey (whose Anglophilic is apparently so strong that it has affected his hearing) seems to feel that anything less than full support of Britain's position is "parrotting the propaganda line of the Fascist Argentine government". Perhaps it is Mr. Sharkey who is parrotting a line—that of the monarchist and admittedly colonialist British government.

3) The alleged analogous situations that Mr. Sharkey cites seem to do more damage to Britain's claims to the islands than anyone else's—especially his reference to Japan. As for Mexican claims to California, Mr. Sharkey presents one of the few convincing cases in his entire letter. Mr. Sharkey accuses me of believing the audience is too stupid to make up its own mind about issues in the news. Quite the contrary, Mr. Sharkey appears to have had no trouble remaining unconvinced after my "tirade." I believe none of us are perfect enough to be completely objective and that it is the duty of any newscaster to be honest about whatever bias he/she may have, instead of claiming objectivity as the networks and others do. This is all done in the belief that an intelligent audience will make up its own mind.

Speaking to friends about the British reaction to the bombing, one suggested that she make a tape for the BBC on her observations. Soon she was asked to go on the air regularly. At the BBC during the war years and through the early 1950's, Elsa became an extraordinary radio journalist and program producer, heading the International Affairs desk of a program that reached 20 million people around the world, interviewing cabinet ministers and soldiers returning from the front, passing on her knowledge and skills to young journalists like Edward R. Murrow and Charles Collingwood. Her program was the first to broadcast details of Hitler's death camps, as she and the BBC played a central role in the struggle against fascism—using the weapon of communication.

In fact, if there is one word that can say it all, it is communication, for at the heart of Elsa's revolutionary legacy is the affirmation of the power of communication to help change the world, what Malcolm X called "the power of truth." As Elsa said in one interview, "I genuinely believe that the truth can make us free. I have tremendous respect for the intelligence of people, and if you don't inform them how can you respect their judgement when they make it? I never assumed that an audience was stupid; I never talked down to an audience, in my life, ever, about anything. This nice-babe-eat-up-the-farina-and-mommy-will-tell-you-a-bedtime-story voice that some of these so-called broadcasters use, talking down to their audience, I would not tolerate it on the air. People would say, 'what level do you want this at?' and I always said, 'your own, if you have one.'"

Before Elsa came to KPFA in 1957, she was a staff member at the first listener supported station in the U.S. in Washington D.C. That experiment failed, but some of its lessons were adapted by Lew Hill, KPFA's founder. Elsa was instrumental in establishing the news and public affairs departments at KPFA, an enormous and far-reaching accomplishment in itself. She also provided deep and far-sighted political leadership through the repression of the 1950's, and the many movements of the 1960's, the anti-capital punishment movement, the struggles against the House UnAmerican Activities Committee, and then the civil rights movement, the student movement, the movement against the war in Vietnam. She interviewed thousands of people and was the primary producer of hundreds of outstanding documentaries.

There is much more to say, and I hope to be able to say more of it when I complete her autobiography, which we were working on before her death. If there are people in the audience who remember a program or event in her life which they wish to share with me, please contact me c/o KPFA.

What exactly does

do?

Earworks designs and installs musically satisfying home audio systems, or counsels you in your own equipment purchase. A housecall diagnosis and repair service is also available.

Discount stores are not good places to go for advice. Market pressures force them to recommend components for reasons that have nothing to do with how well they reproduce music. Earworks' principal stock-in-trade is information and know-how, wedded to a reliable sense of how real, live music sounds. Earworks isn't beholden to any manufacturer. We can't offer you discounts, but we can guide you toward the most musical system in your price range. If you wish, your system will be set up and voiced by a thoroughly experienced audio professional. Please call for more information.

Your Subscription

The Computer.

Our computer is located in Santa Barbara. Your payment may not go into the computer as quickly as you might think because payments go to our lockbox and through the bank before they are fed into the computer. This process often takes more than a week from the time you send your payment. So, if you send your check by the 1st of the month, you may receive the Folio for the following month.

Bill Payment.

Always send a bill with your check! We cannot credit your account correctly unless we know exactly what your check is paying for. If you send a check for a pledge payment without a bill, you might get credit for a new subscription and still be billed for your original pledge.

First Class Folio Mailing.

The Folio is mailed Second Class, and should take 2 to 5 days to get to most places. Unfortunately, our experience has not been good, especially with outlying areas. First Class mailing is available for $10 extra per year (prorated at 85 cents per month for current subscriptions). If you get your Folio on time but would like to receive it well before the first of the month, you may want to get the First Class service.

I Didn't Get My Folio . . .

The Folio is mailed before the 24th of the month. If you have not received your Folio by the first of the month:

- 1) Check your subscription expiration date on the previous Folio mailing label (upper right hand corner of label).
- 2) Make sure you haven't moved without notifying us.
- 3) If you haven't moved and are currently enrolled as a subscriber, contact your local postmaster about delivery.
- 4) Send us a previous Folio label with an explanatory note and request a new Folio be sent to you.

Moving / Address Changes.

If you move, your Folio will not be forwarded unless you have requested Second Class forwarding from the Post Office. The best way to expedite an address change and assure continued receipt of the Folio is to contact us in writing 6 weeks before you move, giving us your name, old zip-code, and new address. There is an address form on the back page of the Folio that you can clip; it already has your current mailing label on its back. Always include your account number at the top of your Folio label for instant handling. Address changes that we get back from the Post Office cost us 25 cents apiece. Changes can take 8 weeks to affect your account.

Prisoner Subscriptions.

KPKF sends a free subscription to any prisoner upon request.

Cassette Folios for the Print Handicapped. The Folio is available on cassette (returnable) to all print handicapped subscribers. If you'd like to receive the Cassette Folio, please tear off the address label on the back of your Folio and send it along with a note (or you may call). Within 2 months, you'll be receiving your complete program guide on cassette. The cassettes are returned to us at the end of each month to be re-used.

Exchange Mailing Lists.

KPKF exchanges and rents its subscriber lists to other organizations of common interest (Channel 28, Ralph Nader, ACLU, etc.). If you don't want to be on exchange mailing lists, send your Folio label to the Subscriptions Department and ask for an "NJ" code. Your name will then be automatically excluded from all mailings except for the Folio and other communications from KPKF.
